Dear Dr. Wang:

As a member of the Organizing Committee, it is my pleasure to extend a formal invitation to you to participate in the 5th International Research Conference on Huanglongbing (IRCHLB V) to be convened in Orlando, Florida, March 14-17, 2017. The cost of registration is $550 USD. We expect 400 to 500 participants to share their experience, expertise and perspective on HLB. We hope to capture as much of the latest knowledge on HLB as possible and as for past IRCHLB conferences publish the Proceedings in the Journal of Citrus Pathology (http://escholarship.org/uc/iocv_journalcitruspathology).

Hotel reservations are now being accepted at the beautiful Caribe Royale Hotel. The conference website is now online for information, registration, abstract title and abstract submission, travel, and general information about the conference (<http://www.irchlb.org>). Travel, accommodation and other expenses as well as registration fees will be covered by delegates.

PLEASE REGISTER AT YOUR EARLIEST CONVENIENCE SO WE CAN PLAN FOR THE PROPER NUMBER OF ATTENDEES TO THE CONFERENCE.

The conference organizers look forward to your participation in this important event.

Sincerely,
